Course Description

SESSION 1: November 5th – “Isn’t Love Enough?” Encouraging Attachment with Your Adopted Child - Discover ways of “jump starting” the attachment process for both you and your child. This workshop will examine how and why attachment occurs, barriers to successful attachment and most importantly, what you can do NOW to help prevent attachment problems later.

SESSION 2: November 5th - A Family Journey through Placement/Core Issues Affecting the Family of Adoption - All members of the adoptive family have unique feelings regarding the adoption. Learn about yourself, your child, and how to tackle those difficult feelings and questions!

SESSION 3: November 5th – Helping Your Family Become Multicultural – Adopting a foreign-born child forever changes the way your family is perceived by the world around us. This workshop will examine ways that you can help your child assimilate into your world and ways in which you must keep your child’s birth culture alive for him/her.

SESSION 4: November 6th – Medical Issues in International Adoption - What should I be looking for in my referral information? When should I be concerned about my baby’s development? What extra tests and precautions will I need to take with my foreign born child? Now’s your chance to ask the experts!

SESSION 5: November 6th – “Who Am I and Where Did I Come From?” – The Search for Self –
A Panel of Adult Adoptees, Birth Parents, and Adoptive Parents share their personal experiences.

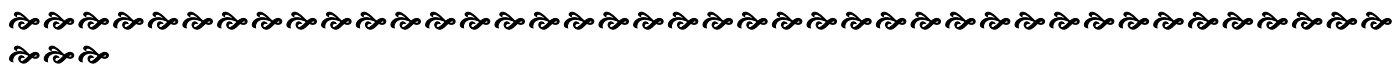

The Presenters

Medical Professionals, with a wide range of experience in adoption and international health are available to provide an overview regarding international adoption, health concerns, and to answer your questions.

Lydia Keto, LSW, has worked as a social worker for the past thirteen years. She has experience in child protection and post adoptive work through Summit County Children Services. The past 6 years she has been employed with FAC facilitating international adoptions.

Vicki Phillips, LISW-S, has worked as an adoption social worker since 1996. She has experience as a birth parent counselor, case manager for infant and special needs children, clinical supervisor, and director of a local foster care and adoption agency. Vicki is also an experienced trainer regarding adoption related issues.

Jodi Ford Rice, LSW, has over 20 years of experience working in the child welfare field with children and families. She has been an adoption trainer for the Adoption Academy at Columbus Nationwide Children’s Hospital for the past 6 years and been employed with FAC facilitating international adoptions since 2005. Jodi is also a proud adoptive mother.

Social Worker CEU’s are available
